Statement on the Use of Your Personal Information

Privacy Act 1988

As a member of FAST (Finance & Systems Technology), Tridental may submit loans through the FAST network in brokering your mortgage, personal loan or other type of finance.

FAST is covered by the Privacy Act 1988, which came into operation on 21 December 2001.

In accordance with our obligations under the Privacy Act, this document advises you of the manner in which your personal information is handled by us and by FAST.

We respect the privacy of your personal information.

You have consented to Tridental and FAST disclosing the information on your application form, to a lender for the purposes of obtaining finance.

We have collected your personal information in order to complete the application for finance. If you do not provide all of the required information, the application may not be considered for approval.

Tridental keeps a copy of your application in order to communicate with you about the application, and provide other services to you. You have a right to access this information, in accordance with the Privacy Act. If you wish to exercise your right of access, please contact Tavis Keen of Tridental on 1300 855 904.

A copy of the application is provided to the lender in order to consider your application, and some of the information on the application is provided to FAST in order to administer the commission payable by the lender. The information held by FAST is accessible to you in accordance with the Privacy Act. If you wish to exercise your rights of access to this information, please contact FAST on 1300 135 777.

Electronic and Other Communications

Tridental and FAST may communicate with you about your application for finance, other advices which may be of interest to you and general information about personal loans, commercial loans and other forms of finance.

If you do not wish to receive such information electronically, please tick this box.

If you do not wish to receive such information via mail/post, please tick this box.

Referral of Your Information to Other Service Providers

As discussed with you, Tridental is pleased to provide you with our other services and also to refer you to other service providers for the purposes of discussing and securing insurance or other financial products. If you do not consent to such a referral and our forwarding your information only to the service providers discussed with and approved by you, please tick this box.
